Alliance Banner at Tennessee Protest

An informal group of racially-conscious Whites gathered in Maryville, Tennessee this month to protest a lecture by a stridently anti-White activist, David Billings, at a local Methodist church. They obtained permission from a local Alliance supporter to use our "It's Great to be White" banner at the protest, which resulted in evening news coverage on WATE-TV channel 6, the Knoxville affiliate of the Jewish-owned ABC television network.

Shortly before WATE went live for their six o'clock news broadcast, their presenter for this story made a request for our view of the protest, since our banner was so prominent there. An Alliance representative, National Vanguard editor Rosemary Pennington was given the task of writing that response, which was as follows:

I'm Rosemary Pennington, a senior editor for the National Alliance's publication National Vanguard.

There were no National Alliance members at the protest, but some people in the community asked to borrow our banner because they wanted the public to know that there is an alternative to the anti-White bullying and shaming being done by David Billings and his Marxist-linked group, the "People's Institute for Survival and Beyond" (PISAB).

PISAB is an outgrowth of the openly Communist "Freedom Schools" of the 1960s that began the process of propagandizing White students to hate their own heritage. PISAB continues that bullying by spreading an unhealthy ideology of self-hatred and guilt among White Americans, including children — telling them that their ancestors were "evil racists" and that the essence of virtue is to "dismantle Whiteness" and stop existing as a people.

PISAB's most well-known alumnus is Jewish "community organizer" Tim Wise, whose publicly stated goal is to "eradicate Whiteness" in America. On the death of White people, which he favors, Tim Wise says he doesn't have to shoot a gun: "We just have to be patient. And wait for your hearts to stop beating."

PISAB and David Billings are promoting White genocide. PISAB and David Billings are hurting White families, White parents, and White children. PISAB and David Billings are contributing to the suicide epidemic among Whites. That is why the National Alliance opposes them.

The National Alliance is the foremost American organization working for the interests of White people worldwide. Our Web address is natall.com.

The station made no pretense of objectivity and took a transparent anti-Alliance tack in their coverage, but they did quote our letter. They chose to quote only our second paragraph (which they showed on the screen and read) and the next-to-last sentence (which they read only), but the Alliance at least was correctly presented to the public as the opponent of Billings and what he stands for.

There are potential dangers for the Alliance and our for our members if they get involved in activities with outside groups, and it is something that we seldom do — and only under very special circumstances. Members should always obtain permission from the Chairman before making promises or taking action.

Business Update

In May we became aware of more pirated copies of The Turner Diaries, primarily published by Barricade Books, on Amazon's sister marketplaces in the United Kingdom, Canada, Australia, and elsewhere, as well as a few copies that were still for sale on some smaller venues in the US. By steadfastly demonstrating to these marketplaces that the National Alliance owns the copyright to The Turner Diaries, we have successfully removed dozens of listings of the book. We will continue to work with booksellers worldwide to remove any remaining illegal copies that are for sale. If members become aware of pirated versions of any of our books for sale online, please report the details to the National Office.

This month marks the fortieth anniversary of the first appearance of The Turner Diaries in book form. The story was first told in serialized form, chapter by chapter, in issues of the National Alliance's monthly tabloid ATTACK! between 1975 and 1978. Plans are in the works to publish a new, third edition of The Turner Diaries this year, including a Kindle version for those e-readers who like to read about the good guys winning for once.

The Turner Diaries tells the reader what a future America will be like based on trends that had become apparent to Dr. Pierce in the 1960s and 1970s. So far his novel has proved to be remarkably prophetic. Furthermore, it is a vehicle for explaining why America is on the wrong path and what must be done to prevent the horrific future it depicts, set in a medium that makes it more accessible and more understandable to the average person. Its message is one of taking responsibility — that is, it is a call for people to become participants in the process of solving the problems which we face, rather than being mere spectators.

The Turner Diaries was Dr. Pierce's early, fictionalized model for attracting and organizing our people to do just that, and we're still here, thanks in part to sales of the novel that the FBI once called "the most dangerous book in America." We are not up to the 300 per week level of sales that boosted Alliance-building through its early years, but we're slowly getting there, adapting to publishing and book-selling in the electronic age. The third edition of The Turner Diaries will have a foreword describing the history of the book and will point its readers to Dr. Pierce's real-world National Alliance.

Adapting to Modern Expectations

Being in the electronic age, we are looking to provide a mechanism that will allow members to pay their dues electronically. Because electronic payment systems keep a small percentage of any transaction as a fee for the service they provide, we will ask members who choose this more convenient method of dues payment to compensate for the middleman's cut. The US Postal Service, as long it still functions well, will remain our preferred method for receiving dues. We also intend to provide an online membership application form. We hope the convenience of being able to apply for Alliance membership electronically will be attractive to potential members who are used to doing everything via their smartphones.

Tennessee State Parks

We will have at least one representative attending the American Freedom Party conference in a state park near Nashville, Tennessee on 15-17 June. If any of our members plan to be there, let the National Office know as soon as possible so we can arrange a side rendezvous. For a while now, any conference gatherings deemed by Jewish groups to be pro-White have had a tendency to be disrupted, even closed down, by Jews or their allies threatening boycotts and demonstrations, and even physical attacks by their masked "antifa" thugs. The Jewish-run Southern Poverty Law Center (SPLC) publicly laments the fact that Tennessee is still a Whites-friendly state when it comes to pro-White groups wishing to gather in her protected state parks. (The Tennessee state legislature recently passed a bill forbidding any so-called "sanctuary cities" for illegal aliens in the state — another good sign.)

In a recent propaganda piece in the Knoxville News Sentinel, part of the USA Today media conglomerate, we find this:

> "Tennessee is, like, the place now," said Heidi Beirich, director of the Southern Poverty Law Center's Intelligence Report. "They [White advocacy groups] love Tennessee. The state has to rent to the public."
> Spurred by growing anti-Fascist activism, groups like Stormfront are being driven out of private venues. They're seeking refuge in Tennessee, where state park facilities must open doors, provide a fleet of park rangers for security and uphold rental contracts despite protests and complaints from the public.
> Carla Hill, an investigative researcher for the Anti-Defamation League's Center on Extremism, said she believes the trend will continue with white supremacist groups making use of a government's obligation to uphold the First Amendment. "They know that public parks, and even public libraries, are limited on their ability to not allow people in the park, a public place," Hill said. "So they do hold events at these locations, because they know they can't be legally denied that right."In the last seven years, at least 14 white supremacist and white nationalist gatherings have been held at state park facilities, according to interviews with the groups' leaders and archived postings on their websites.

Legal Update

The letter to the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) from Chairman Williams as Trustee of the Cosmotheist Community Church that was featured in the March BULLETIN was answered in May. Miss Jamie Lynn Crofts, who is Legal Director of the West Virginia ACLU, wrote in what appears to be a form letter:

> Dear Mr. Williams, Thank you for contacting the ACLU of West Virginia. Unfortunately, we are unable to assist you at this time. Our staff is quite small and our resources are limited. Thus, there are many cases of real injustice that we cannot accept. Our decision does not necessarily mean that your case has no merit. You may have a strong claim, and we encourage you to continue your search for an attorney. We wish you the best of luck in your pursuit of justice.

We were not really expecting a reply, but find it interesting that the West Virginia ACLU would turn down a "career case" against religious intolerance. "Because Freedom Can't Protect Itself" is the ACLU slogan. They say in their mission statement: "Today the ACLU-WV confronts both traditional and new threats to civil liberties on many fronts. Advanced technologies presage new systems that have the capacity to either diminish or expand rights. Meanwhile, our society's most intractable problems remain age-old ones: racism, sexism, homophobia, and religious intolerance."

Chairman Williams wrote a similar letter to the Rutherford Institute, a non-profit civil liberties organization based in Charlottesville, Virginia, that we've been told is somewhat more sympathetic to protecting the civil rights of the White majority in America than is the ACLU. We await the Rutherford response with low expectations. What we need are our own competent and courageous lawyers who will deal with legal issues as they arise.

As was announced in the April BULLETIN National Alliance member Jim Mathias's trial for "having a firearm on school grounds" was docketed for 7 May. Here is Jim's report of that trial:

> Dear Chairman Williams: On May 9, after two days of trial and six hours of deliberations by the jury, I was pronounced guilty of having a firearm on the grounds of a school — which actually was a parking lot next to a stadium that's nowhere near any schools.
> This came as quite a shock, as no evidence was produced that the parcel of property I was on belonged to anyone, much less a school. Also notable was that the prosecutor had only one witness, the officer who had alleged to have received a confession from me regarding a firearm — a firearm he testified as having not seen. His reasons for approaching me were confirmed: He was acting on the basis of the contents of the Alliance fliers I was distributing that evening, using the "concern" of a woman who brought one to him as a justification.
> The all-White jury (eight women, four men) was hung for about four hours, with 10 for conviction and two against, and both sides were firm. But after being instructed to keep deliberating, the two finally flipped, probably because they just didn't want to be there any longer and group pressure took its toll. I don't hold any rancor against the jury, I just chalked it up to being that's how it goes in today's society.
> There are appealable issues here which I intend to pursue in the event that on June 28 the conviction is passed on me by the judge. That judge could possibly stop me from appealing by suspending the judgment and putting me on a probationary-type program. Besides these issues, my attorney has also informed me that this was the first case he'd ever seen where a plea deal was not offered.
> It appears that the county attorney and his assistant who prosecuted me were acting politically here. One indication of this came during the trial, in a side hearing out of sight of the jury but on the record: The assistant county attorney, Caleb

Copley, called me a "Nazi" and "White supremacist" while explaining the lack of a plea deal being offered. He followed the name-calling with a semi-hysterical "I didn't say that! Those are someone else's words!" This was a very odd outburst.

Now some people might think that they can get railroaded for distributing Alliance flyers and consider it too risky an activity. I do not think it is. To this day I still do personal as well as impersonal distributions, as the survival of our people depends on us to reach out to our fellow Whites wherever they are. I have something to lose like everybody else — a home, the esteem of people I transact with, even my liberty in this case — however I intend to survive this, and continue promoting our Alliance by legal means, as always, for as long as I am able.

The National Alliance has a foothold in eastern Iowa now that won't be broken by Rabbi Henry Karp and his anti-Alliance freaks; or by the SPLC, compliant media, and the judicial system characterizing me as "the Nazi gunman" and our Alliance as a "White supremacist hate group."

We need all the help we can get and I intend to do my part by finding more support for Our Cause around here.

With my best regards, — Jim Mathias, Iowa

The results of Jim's sentencing will be published in the June BULLETIN.

Chairman Williams attended yet another pre-trial hearing in West Virginia on 25 May. His defense attorney's motion to dismiss on appeal the lower court's conviction of him was countered by the state's Special Prosecutor with some arcane technical motion of his own for Williams' accuser which, surprisingly enough, was granted by Williams' former co-defendant, the honorable Circuit Court Judge Jennifer Dent. Recall that Williams' accuser, Garland Corse, as plaintiff, named him and Dent as co-defendants before the West Virginia Supreme Court of Appeals last October, and lost. What a dilemma for the State of West Virginia, having such a weak case. Chairman Williams is prepared to face his accuser on 22 June at the appeal trial before Judge Dent for the misdemeanor battery conviction — that is, if this nearly three-year-old case is not thrown out at yet another pre-trial hearing that is scheduled for 13 June.

Alliance members can be assured that no Alliance funds have been spent on any "criminal" wranglings between Chairman Williams and his accuser Garland Corse, the hostile West Virginia neighbor who still, unfortunately, enjoys a legal right-of-way across Cosmotheist Community Church property after having been associated with not one but two failed coup attempts against the National Alliance using their spurious "lawfare" in the civil courts. The National Alliance finally prevailed in both of those cases: one brought by the defunct NARRG plaintiffs, the other by Corse's now deceased employer John McLaughlin, at a cost of more than $40,000 in legal expenses.

Correspondence

To the National Alliance: Kevin Strom's mention of the NKVD [in the 26 May ADV] is very apropos, and I've been thinking about just that during the last few weeks. It's clear the Jews have upped the ante and are reverting to their greasy Bolshevik methods of dealing with their opposition. But unfortunately for them they cannot yet create new death camps for their enemies so they are settling for lawfare, deplatforming, harassing and ruining the lives of perceived White racialist leaders, and driving people to suicide out of despair. That is why they are fanatically attempting to ban all firearms (i.e., "assault rifles") that are effective in resisting the government tyranny that is upon us and which is poised to change from soft to hard any year now. They are trying to weaken their enemy (us) before they start making their moves.

I do believe their goal is to get pro-White political dissidents declared to be "terrorists" so we can be stripped of all rights and legal protections. Nobody should say that is far-fetched when every Congressman and Senator is subservient to Jewish interests. — "Bridger," via a comment at National Vanguard

Chairman Williams responds: It's good that folks like Bridger are awakened to the threat Jewry poses to our race, but they strike me as terminally defeatist, waiting helplessly for soft tyranny to turn to hard. They do not join with us, but like to express themselves in comments at nationalvanguard.org, usually anonymously.

Speaking of "deplatforming," as this issue of the BULLETIN goes to press we learn that the National Alliance's YouTube channel, which had been rebuilt — up to 4,150 subscribers; 650 videos, with over 510,000 views (325 per day) this time — has once again been shut down after having been removed twice before by the Jews at YouTube. Jew-owned YouTube's policy is that they can shut down any channel at any time for any reason — so that is what they do, this time without any warning or notification whatsoever. Our National Vanguard Alliance (NVA) YouTube channel probably awakened at least a thousand new people this time. That's the good news. Nobody said Alliance-building would be easy.

Greetings Chairman Williams! Now that we have survived another infamous New England winter, our New England National Alliance members have begun a regular schedule of monthly meetings. Our March and April meetings were held at a trusted member's home; everybody was happy to come together again in friendship and camaraderie. We have come to realize the value of simply interacting with like-minded White men and women. Being able to share our thoughts and experiences is, in itself, a profound and worthwhile experience and makes the venture worthwhile.

Our conversations run through the entire spectrum of the White experience, from what's happening on one's block to what things look like on an international level.

We also discuss ideas about information drops, pamphlet dissemination, and other hands-on activities to help spread our message of White solidarity. We met again this month and have a meeting planned for June. We will continue to move forward in our efforts to wake up and unify our great race — because it really is a matter of life and death.

Thank you in the National Office and our Media Office for all that you do. Respects, — M.R., Maine

Commentary by Chairman William White Williams

Character Counts

Grizzled veterans like myself are rarely surprised any more by Jew-controlled media reports using the anti-White SPLC as a source whenever a "hate" expert is needed for a story. I want to pick up on the Knoxville News Sentinel (KNS) article mentioned earlier in this BULLETIN and elaborate further. In another recent KNS article, this one by ace investigative journalist Natalie Allison, titled, "Why white nationalists are descending on Tennessee's state parks," we find this quote:

> ...Billy Roper, the Arkansas blogger and one-time event organizer for National Alliance, a now-defunct group described by the SPLC as having been the "leading neo-Nazi organization in the Western Hemisphere."

Good job, Allison. Keep up the good work. Keep reporting to your readers that our Alliance is "defunct." You should inform your SPLC source that the National Alliance still shows up on their so-called Hate Map, though. While you're at it, you should ask yourself why these Great Experts can't even maintain the most basic level of internal consistency.

As for perpetual self-promoter Billy Roper, I warned members a few months ago about him having contacted at least one of our members, recommending that the member consider supporting Harold Covington's phony organization.

A distinct line must be drawn between the National Alliance and most of the other groups claiming to represent the interests of Whites. Many are fraudulent and/or irresponsible, and lack the long-term staying power, strategy, responsibility, and necessary core principles of the Alliance.

Billy Roper was the Deputy Membership Coordinator for the Alliance for a while before Dr. Pierce died. I feel responsible for his being in that position then because I'd lobbied Dr. Pierce hard at the time to get someone on staff who would be liaison between the National Office and our members/activists in the field. I recommended Billy, who had recently joined and was active in Arkansas. Billy was a history teacher I'd been introduced to online around 2000. (I didn't know then that Billy was a "Christian Identity" believer — one of those who adhere to the preposterous belief that Whites are the "true Hebrews" of the Old Testament, which is what he claims today. That was something he apparently hid for years, or it is simply a creed of convenience.)

There was no Membership Coordinator during Billy's tenure as Deputy Membership Coordinator. Beginning during Dr. Pierce's final illness, Billy made an aggressive but unsuccessful bid to become National Alliance chairman. Billy then went on to form a "big tent" organization he called White Revolution. It failed, predictably, and he joined the Ku Klux Klan, announcing his Christian Identity beliefs. It was as if he had never listened to a word William Pierce had spoken. When Roper failed to take over the KKK faction he had joined he wrote novels for a while and re-emerged recently with something he calls the "balk-right," the name of which is a twist, too clever by half, of the recently failed, big tent "alt-right" movement.

View of the park-like entrance to The Land, passing by the stone steps to the gatehouse which were built by Fred Streed.

I was notified last week that Billy had taken credit for the banner display in Maryville, Tennessee, (see pages 3-4 of this BULLETIN) though there was just one of his balk-right skinheads in attendance. We also learned he had done an Internet interview show in late May, promoting his balk-right strategy with none other than Harold Covington as his featured guest. Billy knows better, but doesn't seem to mind associating with this long-time fraud and enemy of the Alliance.

Once again: Any member who is invited to follow Billy Roper's balk-right movement or Harold Covington's fraudulent operations should let the National Office know. Also please send whomever invited you to be a "balk-righter" or a Covingtonista to the following URL to see what kind of person Billy said that he "highly respected and admired" so much on his podcast: http://noncounterproductive.blogspot.com/2012/01/harold-covington-anti-racist.html

Defunct National Alliance?

The queers, Jews and other non-Whites at the SPLC have been declaring our organization dead or near death for years now. The fact is, despite the many challenges we've faced, the National Alliance has more going for it than any other organization concerning itself with the long-term future of our race.

Consider our debt-free West Virginia campus and additional acreage alone, for just one example. Jay Hess, our man on The Land in West Virginia, is doing a yeomanly job of maintaining the property, making needed repairs, and handling business on-site. Jay is a self-starter who recognizes work when he sees it, then does it. He has a couple of local helpers when he needs them and a couple of Alliance members already scheduled to visit and help out during the month of June. I have two trips planned to West Virginia during June also. Anyone receiving this BULLETIN who wants to visit our Cosmotheist Community Chuch campus this summer for a few days of volunteer work, supervised by Jay, contact the National Office at our Tennessee address or email me at alliancechairman@natall.com. The guest house is habitable, but can still use a "woman's touch."
